

CSU-ERFSA Recap of administrative support discussions - 2022-2023
highly abbreviated
See full text at <https://www.paulreuben.website/erfa/>

November, 2022 from Executive Committee to President Junn

- appreciation for inclusion in COVID vaccination protocol in October, 2022
- timely access to contact information for recent retirees
- ID cards for retirees providing access to Vasche Library and other campus venues
- some kind of parking access for retiree members
- ERFSA recognition at campus CalPERS information sessions
- bulletin board/poster visibility for CSU-ERFSA in locations such as Human Resources
- restoration of Senior Scholars program for retirees to attend classes if spaces open

February, 2023 from interim AVP Faculty Affairs Terry Jones

- designated by President Junn as liaison with assist from Edwena Jacobs
- retirees can apply for Annual Retiree Parking Permit at $24/per year or prorated
- Faculty affairs staff can provide names of current employees discussing retirement
- Faculty affairs and can distribute pamphlets provided by ERFSA
- Faculty affairs will make room for a poster supplied by ERFSA
- ERFSA representatives will be invited to present at FA retirement info sessions
- FA will inform ERFSA of upcoming CalPERS sessions and suggest ERFSA inclusion
- ERFSA link added to FA/HR web pages
- Faculty awarded emeritus status can have indefinite use of university email
- A staff program to provide indefinite email access to retirees is being developed
- Course auditing is available and restoration of limited Senior Scholars being studied
- Employee Support fund is being studied and may be a tax exempt donation opportunity

April, 2023 from President Reuben representing Executive Committee

- proposal for email from CSU-ERFSA to declared retirees via Faculty Affairs
- provide names for recent emeriti faculty so Chapter can provide free year membership
- ERFSA main office will supply retirement brochures given contact information
- continued concern for ID card for emeriti/retirees to access campus facilities
- year-end (semester-end) meeting will include interim AVP Jones

April, 2023 from interim AVP Faculty Affairs Terry Jones

- FA/HR staff will distribute any ERFSA information supplied to them
- FA/HR staff will keep list of declared retirees, names to be shared each semester
- can only share university email addresses, not personal information
- campus identification cards are available to emeritus faculty/staff

Annhenrie's note: Some procedures discussed are unclear: how to find and use the application for on-campus parking and how to access an identification card if no longer a member of a specific department.